

FITZCARRALDO IS 10 YEARS OLD,
IN FACT 25!

Who we are

---

Fitzcarraldo, just like the visionary pioneer in Werner Herzog's film, has accepted the challenge to open up new paths to support all those who work within and in favour of the cultural sector.

The annual report is the story of one year of a long adventure started in the mid 80s and a due initiative of transparency towards our stakeholders.

We work in

Fitzcarraldo works in Piedmont, in Italy, in Europe, in the Mediterranean area as well as in some Asian developing areas and for many years it has been actively taking part in the movement of transnational cultural networks.

Documentation

Fitzcarraldo places its collection of publications, documents, analysis and reports on cultural management, economy and policies at the public's disposal through:

- The library of its Documentation Centre
- The publishing of researches and of papers on its institutional website
- The on-line review www.fizz.it

- And the regional portal www.risorsebeniculturali.it

In the next future...

Our priorities are:

- To Keep on operating in favour of the professional and structural growth of cultural sector;
- To identify innovative solutions for the sustainability of cultural organisations;
- To know and to learn from sectors other than /but similar to culture, to upgrade our transversal view and to get new inputs;
- To increase our action at national level, by paying the maximum attention to the local needs of each area where we will work in;
- To establish partnerships and to widen our network of collaboration with Italian and foreign stakeholders within and beyond the cultural environment;
- To increase our assets, in order to make the Foundation more and more solid and ready to face the challenges in the years to come.
